BOARD CHARTER

I. BOARD RESPONSIBILITIES

The Board of Directors (“Board”) of REDtone Digital Berhad (“REDtone” or “Company”) representing the shareholders are empowered to ensure the proper management of the entity, including optimising long-term financial returns and the creation of long-term shareholder value. The Board is responsible for ensuring that the Company and its subsidiaries (“Group”) are managed to achieve this result and to deliver the expectation of the shareholders and stakeholders with the highest level of integrity and ethics. This is an active, not a passive, responsibility. The Board must ensure that in good times, as well as difficult ones, management is capable of executing its responsibilities.

In addition to fulfilling its obligations for increased shareholder value, the Board has the responsibility to the Group’s stakeholders and to the environment, social, governance and communities where it operates, all of whom are fundamental to a successful business. All of these responsibilities, however, are founded upon the successful continuation of the business.

The duties, powers and functions of the Board are governed by the Constitution of the Company, the Companies Act 2016, regulatory guidelines and requirements that are in force.

Having regard to the responsibilities and obligations, the Board will direct and supervise the management of the business and affairs of the Group including:

1. Ensuring that the Group’s goals are clearly established;
2. Reviews and adopts a strategic plan, as developed by Management, taking into account the sustainability of the businesses of the Group, with attention given to climate-related and environmental, social, and governance (“ESG”) aspects of the operations;
3. Oversees the conduct of the Group’s business to evaluate whether the business is being properly managed. This includes ensuring the solvency of the Group and the ability of the Group to meet its contractual obligations and to safeguard its assets;
4. Promotes good corporate governance culture within the Group which reinforces ethical, prudent and professional behaviour to deliver sustainable and solid business performance;
5. Ensures there is a sound framework for internal controls and risk management, understands the principal risks of the Company’s business and recognises that business decision involves the taking of appropriate risk and sets the risk appetite and establishes a sound framework to manage risk;
6. Appoints board committees to address specific issues, considers recommendations of the various board committees and discusses problems and reservations arising from these committees’ deliberations and reports;

7. Succession planning of Board and Senior Management to ensure leadership continuity within the Group;
8. Ensures that the statutory accounts of the Company and Group are fairly stated and otherwise conform with the relevant regulations including acceptable accounting policies that result in balanced and understandable financial statements;
9. Supervises and assesses management performance to determine whether the business is being properly managed;
10. Oversees the development and implementation of an Investor Relations Program or Stakeholder Communication Policy; and
11. Reviews the Board Charter as and when deemed necessary to ensure its relevance in assisting the Board in discharging its duties in accordance with the changes in corporate laws, requirements and regulations that may arise and to remain consistent with the Board's objectives and responsibilities.;

Directors should consult the Chairman and the Company Secretary, as required for any clarifications on their responsibilities and duties and any dealings from which potential conflict of interest situation may arise.

Directors must at all times be aware of their additional role as ambassadors of the Group and as such should be guided accordingly.

A Schedule of Matters reserved for collective decision of the Board is provided in Appendix A.

II. BOARD MEMBERSHIP GUIDELINES

1. Size of the Board

The maximum number of directors is stipulated in the Constitution. Generally, the size of the Board will be such that the common purpose, involvement, participation, harmony and sense of responsibility of the Board Members will not be jeopardised. It must be large enough to ensure a range of knowledge, views and experience and should be a size that encourages effectiveness.

2. Composition

The composition of the Board will reflect the duties and responsibilities it is to discharge and perform as representatives of the interests of shareholders.

At least two (2) directors or one third (1/3) of the Board, whichever is higher, shall be independent directors in order to provide a balanced and independent view in the Board. If the number of directors is not three (3) or a multiple of three (3), then the number nearest one third (1/3) shall be used. The definition of independent director follows that of Rule 1.01 of the Main Market Listing Requirements ("Listing Requirements") of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad ("Bursa Securities")

Directors shall not hold more than five (5) directorships in listed issuers, as stipulated under the Listing Requirement of Bursa Securities. The tenure of an independent director shall not exceed a term limit of nine (9) years since appointment as an independent director, as recommended by Practice 5.3 of the Malaysia Code on Corporate Governance 2021 ("MCCG").

Upon completion of the nine (9) years, an independent director may be re-designated and continue to serve on the Board as a non-independent director. In the event the Board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine (9) years, the Board should justify and seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process until the twelfth (12th) year, as described in the Guidance to Practice 5.3 of the MCCG. If the board wishes to appoint an independent director for more than twelve (12) years, after observing the requisite 3-year cooling off period, an explanation on why there is no other eligible candidate is required in the statement accompanying the notice of annual general meeting and announcement on the appointment of a director.

The Nomination Committee is responsible for overseeing the selection and reviewing, on an annual basis, the appropriate knowledge, skills, experience and characteristics and time commitment required of Board Members, in the context of the needs of the Group with reference to its business. The review and assessment of potential candidates for appointment and re-election of Directors shall be guided by the Directors' Fit and Proper Policy adopted by the Company.

Upon receipt of the recommendation from the Nomination Committee and/or shareholders of the Company, the Board itself should be responsible for selecting its members pursuant to Clause 116 of the Constitution of the Company and/or in recommending them for election by the shareholders in accordance with the Companies Act 2016 ("CA 2016"). The Board delegates the screening and evaluation process for potential new directors and directors to be nominated for re-election to the Nomination Committee.

In the event of an Executive Director's service contract with the Group terminates for whatever reason, the said director is expected to resign from the Board, although the Board may, if it considers it appropriate, and subject to shareholders' approval where necessary, re-appoint the said director as a non-executive member of the Board.

The Constitution provides for one third (1/3) of the Board to retire at each annual general meeting and a retiring director shall be eligible for re-election.

3. External Board Appointments

Any Board Member is, while holding office, at liberty to accept other board appointments (outside the Group) so long as the appointment is not in conflict with the business of the Company and Group and does not detrimentally affect the director's performance as a Board Member. However, Directors shall not sit on the boards of more than five (5) listed issuers.

4. Board Leadership

The Board shall appoint a Chairman and if necessary, a Deputy Chairman from amongst its non-executive members. The Deputy Chairman shall perform the duty of the Chairman during the Chairman's absence. The Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance ("MCCG") recommends that at least half of the Board shall comprise of independent directors.

The roles of the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer shall be separated. The position description of the Chairman and the Executive Directors and Non-Executive Directors are provided in Appendices B, C and D respectively.

The Chairman of the Board shall not be a member of the Audit Committee, Nomination Committee or Remuneration Committee.

The Chairman is responsible for its overall effectiveness in directing the Company and representing the Board to shareholders. The Chairman is responsible for ensuring the integrity and effectiveness of the governance process of the Board and maintaining regular dialogue and constructive relations with the Executive Directors over all operational matters and will consult with the Board promptly over any matter that gives him / her cause for major concern.

The Chairman will act as a facilitator at meetings of the Board and demonstrate objective judgement, promote a culture of openness and debate to ensure that no Board Member, whether executive or non-executive, dominates discussion, that appropriate discussion takes place and that relevant opinion among Board Members are forthcoming. The Chairman will ensure that discussions and contribution from fellow directors achieve consensus and to summarise views around the table.

The Board shall also appoint amongst its members a Senior Independent Non-Executive Director to be called Senior Director, to whom concerns from the other directors, public or investors may be conveyed. Inquiries or complaints about decisions or actions taken by the Group should be addressed to the Senior Independent Non-Executive Director.

5. Directors' Induction and Training

The Chairman should ensure that all Board Members, when taking up office, are fully briefed on the terms of their appointment, duties and responsibilities. New Board Members will also be briefed on the corporate information, management information, and the operations of the Group to increase their understanding of the business and the environment and markets in which the Group operates. The new Board Member will be given a copy of the following:

- i. Board Charter;
- ii. Board committees' composition and terms of reference (Appendices F – H);
- iii. Latest annual report containing the audited financial statements;
- iv. Organisation chart;
- v. Business operation structure; and
- vi. Minutes of past three (3) Board of Directors' meetings,

All Directors are required to attend a continuous education or suitable training programme each year to ensure that each Director receives regular briefings and updates to keep themselves abreast of changes and trends in the business and in the Group's business environment and markets and changes and trends in the economic, political, social, legal and regulatory climate that could affect the business of the Group. Board Members are expected to continuously upgrade their knowledge and understanding of their roles and responsibilities as Directors.

The continuous education of the Directors shall be disclosed in the Company's Annual Report and valid justifications are to be disclosed in the Annual Report, where a Director fails to attend any training for the financial year.

6. Shareholdings by Board Members in the Company

Board Members may hold shares in the Company. When buying or selling shares in the Company, Board Members must strictly observe Chapter 14 of the Listing Requirements, the provisions of CA 2016 and the Constitution, the Director's Code of Best Practice and all relevant legislative and regulatory procedures.

III. BOARD AND MEMBER EVALUATIONS

The Chairman keeps under review, informally, the contributions made by Board Members. A broad interpretation of contribution is applied, which can be in terms of fulfilment of their role description, contribution of specific skills and diverse outlook, personal attributes, and contribution to meetings of the Board, committee meetings, representing the Company or Group in public events, developing policies etc.

The Nomination Committee is entrusted by the Board to review the performance and effectiveness of the Board and Board Committees, including individual Directors, annually via an annual assessment. The results of the assessment are collated and deliberated by the Nomination Committee and thereafter, the Nomination Committee Chairman will report the results to the Board.

IV. DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION

The remuneration of Directors and Key Senior Management shall be guided by the Company's Remuneration Policy and Procedure. The Board will determine the level of remuneration of Board Members, taking into consideration the recommendations of the Remuneration Committee for executive Board Members.

Non-executive Board Members will be paid a basic fee as ordinary remuneration and will be paid a sum based on their responsibilities in committees and the Board, their attendance and/or special skills and expertise they bring to the Board. The fee shall be fixed in sum and not by a commission on or percentage of profits or turnover.

Executive Board Members will not receive fees but will be paid as employees of the Company in accordance with their contracts of employment with the Company. The Remuneration package for executive Board Members shall be reviewed by the Remuneration Committee and thereafter recommend to the Board for approval.

V. BOARD STRUCTURES AND PROCEDURES

1. Board Committees

The Board may delegate responsibility for specified matters to individual members or committees of the Board. All such committees must be provided with written terms of reference which state clearly the extent and limits of their responsibilities and authority and whether they act on behalf of the Board or report back to the Board.

The present Board committees are the Audit Committee, the Remuneration Committee and the Nomination Committee. A Management-level Risk Management Committee has been established to assist the Board for the execution and management of the risk management policy and process. The respective committees' terms of references are set out in the following appendices:

- Audit Committee (Appendix F)
- Remuneration Committee (Appendix G)
- Nomination Committee (Appendix H)
- (Management-level) Risk Management Committee (Appendix I)

2. Board Meetings

The Chairman should ensure that the Board meets at regular intervals throughout the year. At each scheduled meeting, the Board should consider where applicable:

- an operational report from the Executive Directors;
- financial performance of the Group;
- proposals for significant capital expenditure and acquisitions;
- proposals for significant disposal of company assets;
- major issues or opportunities for the Group;
- committee minutes / Board Circular Resolutions for notation;
- changes in directorship and disclosure of interest;
- disclosure of dealings by directors / principal officers;
- summary of share ownership movement; and
- any other matters requiring its authority.

In addition, the Board shall, at periodic intervals of not more than one (1) year:

- review the Company's and Group's goals;
- consider and, if appropriate, declare or recommend the payment of dividends;
- review non-executive Board Members' remuneration;
- approve the annual report;
- review the reports and recommendations from the Audit Committee:
 - approve the quarterly announcements and annual audited financial statements for issuance to shareholders and the public;
 - approve the appointment of the Group's external auditors; and
 - approve risk assessment and control policies
- review and endorse recommendations from the Nomination Committee on:
 - the Board composition, structure and succession;

- the performance of, necessity for and composition of Board Committees; and
- the Board and individual member's evaluations
- review and endorse reports and recommendations from the Remuneration Committee on:
 - the Executive Directors' performance and remuneration; and
 - the remuneration policies and practices in general.

The Constitution of the Company stipulates the procedures for convening board meetings and the size and required attendance for the Board's quorum.

Board meeting agendas shall be the responsibility of the Chairman with input from Board Members and the Company Secretary. The Chairman may also ask management to participate in this process.

The agenda for each meeting shall be circulated in advance before each meeting to the Board Members and all those who are required to attend the meeting. Written materials including information requested by the Board from management and / or external consultants shall be received together with the agenda for the meetings.

The Chairman shall cause minutes to be duly entered in the books provided for the purpose of all resolutions and proceedings of all meetings of the Board. The minutes of meetings shall accurately record decisions taken and the views of individual Board Members, where appropriate. Such minutes shall be signed by the Chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings were held or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting and if so signed, shall be conclusive evidence without any further proof of the facts thereon stated. Minutes of each meeting shall also be distributed to all members of the Board.

Board Members are expected to make every effort to attend Board meetings and prepare thoroughly. Members are expected to participate fully, frankly and constructively in Board discussions and other activities and to bring the benefit of their particular knowledge, skills and abilities to the Board table.

Board discussions will be open and constructive, recognising that genuinely held differences of opinion can, in such circumstances, bring greater clarity and lead to better decisions. The Chairman will, nevertheless, seek a consensus in the Board but may, where considered necessary, call for a vote. All discussions and their record will remain confidential unless there is a specific direction from the Board to the contrary or disclosure is required by law. Subject to legal or regulatory requirements, the Board will decide the manner and timing of the publication of its decisions.

Executive members attend Board meetings to discharge their Board responsibilities. At Board meetings, Board responsibilities supersede all executive responsibilities.

3. Provision of Business or Professional Services by Board Members

To avoid a conflict of interest (actual or perceived), Board Members should not, generally provide business or professional services of an ongoing nature to the Group.

Notwithstanding the general rule, the Company and/or Group is at liberty to:

- for the purpose of a special assignment, engage the services of any Board Member having special expertise in the particular field; or
- engage the services of a firm or company of which the Board Member is a partner, director or major shareholder so long as the terms of engagement are competitive, are clearly recorded and all regulatory and legal requirements of the engagement are properly observed.

4. Access to Independent Professional Advice

In discharging directors' duties, each member of the Board is entitled to obtain independent professional advice at the cost of the Company.

If a director considers that such advice is necessary, the director shall first discuss it with the Chairman and, having done so shall be free to proceed. The director should provide proper notice to the Company Secretary(ies) of the intention to seek independent advice and shall provide the names(s) of the professional advisors that he / she intends to contact, together with a brief summary of the subject matter for which professional advice is sought. The Company Secretary(ies) shall provide a written acknowledgement of acceptance of notification. In the event that one or more directors seek to appoint one or more advisors, the Chairman should take steps to facilitate discussions to arrive at a consensus.

Fees for the independent professional advice will be payable by the Company but proper approval of the Chairman will be required.

For avoidance of doubt, the above restriction shall not apply to executive directors acting in the furtherance of their executive responsibilities and within their delegated powers.

For the purposes of this section, independent professional advice shall include advice sought from legal experts, accountants or other professional advisors and consultants. Independent professional advice shall exclude any advice concerning the personal interests of the directors (such as with respect to their contracts or disputes with the Group), unless these are matters affecting the Board as a whole.

5. The Company Secretary

The appointment or removal of Company Secretary or Secretaries of the Board shall be the prerogative of the Board as a whole. The Secretary appointed should be suitably qualified and competent to provide sound governance advice, ensure adherence to rules and procedures and advocate adoption of corporate governance best practice and supports the Board in carrying out its roles and responsibilities.

The Secretary is responsible for ensuring that Board procedures are followed, that the applicable rules and regulations for the conduct of the affairs of the Board are complied with and for all matters associated with the maintenance of the Board or otherwise required for its efficient operation and advises the Board on the principles and the best practices in corporate governance.

All Board Members, particularly the Chairman, have unrestricted access to the advice and services of the Company Secretary(ies) for the purposes of the Board's affairs and the business.

VI. RELATIONSHIP OF THE BOARD WITH MANAGEMENT

1. Access to Management and Information

Board Members have complete access to the Group's Management and unrestricted access to the information pertaining to the Company and / or Group including the Company and / or Group's auditors and consultants.

It is assumed that Board Members will use judgement to be sure that this contact is not distracting to the business operation of the Group and that such contact, if in writing, be copied to the Executive Directors and Chairman.

Furthermore, the Board encourages the Management to, from time to time, involve managers in Board meetings who:

- can provide additional insight into the items being discussed because of personal involvement in these areas; and / or
- represent managers with future potential that the Management believes should be given exposure to the Board.

2. Position of the Executive Directors

The Board will link the Company's governance and management functions through the Executive Directors. The Executive Directors serve as a conduit between the Management and the Board and are responsible for the effective implementation of the Company's strategic plan and policies established by the Board, besides managing the daily operations of the Company. All Board authority conferred on management is delegated through the Executive Directors so that the authority and accountability of the Management is considered to be the authority and accountability of the Executive Directors so far as the Board is concerned. The Board shall regularly review the division of responsibilities to ensure that the needs of the Company are consistently met.

The Board, through the Remuneration Committee, will agree with the Executive Directors to achieve specific results directed towards the Company and / or Group goals.

Between Board meetings, the Chairman maintains an informal link between the Board and the Executive Directors, and expects to be kept informed by the Executive Directors of all important matters, and is available to the Executive Directors to provide counsel and advice where appropriate.

Only decisions of the Board acting as a body are binding on the Executive Directors. Decisions or instructions of individual Board Members, officers or committees are not binding except in those instances where specific authorisation is given by the Board.

3. Accountability of the Executive Directors to the Board

The Executive Directors are accountable to the Board for the achievement of the Company goals and for the observance of the Management authorities.

At each normal Board meeting, the Board should expect to receive from or through the Executive Directors:

- the operational and other reports and proposals referred to under the section on Board Meetings and Appendix A: Schedule of Matters Reserved for Collective Decision of the Board; and
- such assurances as the Board considers necessary to confirm that the Management authorities are being observed.

4. Management Authorities

The Executive Directors are expected to act within all specific authorities delegated to them by the Board.

The Executive Directors are expected not to cause or permit any practice, activity or decision that is contrary to commonly accepted good business practice or professional ethics. In allocating the capital and resources of the Company and / or Group, the Executive Directors are expected to adhere to the Company and / or Group goals. They are expected not to cause or permit any action without taking into account the health, safety, political, environmental and social, and governance consequences and their effect on long-term shareholder value.

The assets of the Group are expected to be adequately maintained and protected, and not unnecessarily placed at risk. In managing the risks of the Group, the Executive Directors are expected not to cause or permit anyone to substitute their own risk preference for those of the shareholders as a whole.

The Executive Directors are expected to not permit employees and other parties working for the Group to be subjected to treatment or conditions that are undignified, inequitable, unfair or unsafe.

VII. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE BOARD AND SHAREHOLDERS, INSTITUTIONAL INVESTORS, PRESS, CUSTOMERS, ETC

The Board will use its best endeavours to familiarise itself with issues of concern to shareholders and will table any resolution set out in the notice of any general meeting or in any notice of resolution which may properly be moved and is intended to be moved at any general meeting by poll voting.

The Board believes that the Management speaks for the Group. Individual Board Members may, from time to time at the request of the management, meet or otherwise communicate with various constituencies that are involved with the Group. If comments from the Board are appropriate, they should, in most circumstances, come from the Chairman.

Appendix D

POSITION DESCRIPTION OF THE:

(I) NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

Non-Executive Directors are:

- Those who have no direct or indirect pecuniary interest in the Company other than their Directors' emoluments and their "permitted" shareholdings in the Company;
- Those who are not employees of the Company or affiliated with it in any other way and are not involved in the day-to-day running of business but may have pecuniary interest in the Company, whether direct or indirect; or
- Those who are not employees of the Company but are standing as nominees for substantial shareholders.

The roles of the Non-Executive Directors can be summarised as follows:

1. Act as a bridge between the Management and stakeholders, particularly shareholders. They could provide the relevant checks and balances, focusing on shareholders' and other stakeholders' interests and ensuring that high standards of corporate governance are applied.
2. Bring dispassionate objectivity that a director with a relationship with the Company cannot provide.

(II) INDEPENDENT NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

Independent Non-Executive Directors are essential for protecting the interests of minority shareholders and can make significant contributions to the Company's decision making by bringing in the quality of detached impartiality. Since an Independent Non-Executive Director has no conflict of interests in the discharge of his duties, he ought to approach any approval that is being sought at board level for a transaction or any matter with a watchful eye and with an inquiring mind.

Rule 1.01 of the Listing Requirements provides that an Independent Non-Executive Director is one who is independent of management and free from any business or other relationship that could interfere with the exercise of independent judgement or the ability to act in the best interests of a listed company.

The Independent Non-Executive Director of the Company must be a person who:

- is not an executive director of the Company or any related corporation of the Company (the Company or any related corporation is referred to as "said Corporation");
- has not been within the last 3 years and is not an officer (except as an independent director) of the said Corporation;
- is not a major shareholder of the said Corporation;

REDTONE DIGITAL BERHAD

- is not a family member of any executive director, officer or major shareholder of the said Corporation;
- is not acting as a nominee or representative of any executive director or major shareholder of the said Corporation;
- has not been engaged as a professional adviser by the said Corporation under such circumstances as prescribed by Bursa Securities or is not presently a partner, director (except as an independent director) or a major shareholder, as the case may be, of a firm or corporation which provides professional advisory services to the said Corporation under such circumstances as prescribed by Bursa Securities; or
- has not engaged in any transaction with the said Corporation under such circumstances as prescribed by Bursa Securities or is not presently a partner, director or a major shareholder, as the case may be, of a firm or corporation (other than subsidiaries of the Company) which has been engaged in any transaction with the said Corporation under such circumstances as prescribed by Bursa Securities.
- Has not served as an independent director in any one or more of the said Corporation for a cumulative period of more than 12 years from the date of his/her first appointment as an independent director.

Practice 5.3 of the MCGG recommends that the tenure of an independent director should not exceed 9 years cumulatively. After 9 years, such independent director may continue to serve on the board subject to his re-designation as a non-independent director.

Alternatively, the board may justify and seek shareholders' annual approval through a two-tier voting process in order to retain an independent director who has served in that capacity for more than 9 years.

Appendix E

DIRECTORS' CODE OF BEST PRACTICE

Board members are required to observe the Directors' Code of Best Practice as follows:

1. Compliance at all times with this Code of Best Practice and the Board Charter.
2. Observe high standards of corporate governance at all times.
3. Adhere to the principles of selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty and leadership.
4. Act in good faith and in the best interests of the Company and Group.
5. Abide by the Group's Code of Conduct and Business Ethics which provides the ground rules and guidance for proper standard of conduct and ethical behaviour for all Directors and employees of the Group when dealing with both internal and external parties and compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations.
6. Not misuse information gained in the course of duties for personal gain or for political purposes, nor seek to use the opportunity of the service as directors to promote their private interests or those of connected persons, firms, businesses or other organisations.
7. Uphold accountability at all times. This includes ensuring that the Company's resources are properly safeguarded and the Company conducts its operations as economically, efficiently and effectively as possible at all times.
8. Board Members should not accept positions on Board committees or working groups where a conflict of interest is likely to arise, without first declaring that interest.
9. Declaration of any personal, professional or business interests that may conflict with directors' responsibilities. Guidance on declaration and registration of interests is given in the section entitled "Declaration of Interests" below.
10. Follow the guidance on acceptance of gifts and hospitality as stated in the section entitled "Guidelines on Acceptance of Gifts" below

Declaration of interests

Subject to the requirements of any acts, rules or regulations that are in force from time to time and in addition to such mandatory requirements, members of the Board are required to notify the Company Secretary(ies) any changes in the following:

1. Shareholding in the Company or its related corporations, whether direct or indirect; and
2. Directorships or interests in any other corporations.

In addition to the above, member of the Board who has a material interest, either directly or through a partner, spouse or close relative, in matters being considered by, or likely to be considered by the Board should declare that interest. Such declarations should describe the interest clearly and state whether it carries direct or indirect financial benefits. This requirement also applies to members of senior management.

Relevant interests in this context are as follows:

1. Executive and non-executive directorships of, significant shareholdings in, or employment by, public or private companies likely or possibly seeking to enter into a transaction or to do business with the Company.
2. Ownership or part-ownership of, or employment by, businesses or consultancies likely or possibly seeking to do business with the Company or the Group.

Register of Interests

The Code requires that a formal register of interests be established. The register should include details of all directorships and other relevant interests declared by Board Members and members of senior management.

Conduct in Meetings

Any Board Member who has a clear and substantial interest in a matter under consideration by the Board should declare that interest at any meeting where the matter is to be discussed, whether or not that interest is already recorded in the register. The Board Member concerned should withdraw from the meeting during the relevant discussion or decision.

Membership of Committees

Board Members should not accept positions on Board committees or working groups where a conflict of interest is likely to arise, without first declaring that interest.

Guidelines on Acceptance of Gifts

The following set out the guidelines on acceptance of gifts:

1. The conduct of individuals must not create suspicion of any conflict between their position as a member of the Board and any private interest;
2. Board Members acting as such must not give the impression that they have been influenced by a benefit to show favour or disfavour to any person or organisation having dealings with the Company;
3. Board Members must not accept any benefit as an inducement or reward for taking any action (or specifically not taking any action) in their official capacity as a Board Member; and
4. Gifts other than of token value should generally be refused.
